Police Continue To Investigate

The Unsolvede Homicide of Sheila Madore

Halifax, Nova Scotia, 08.10.2026, 17:35 Time

Brian MacKenzie Teepell/USPA 24 News - October 8th, 2026: Statement From Halifax Regional Police: Media Release.
Today marks the sixth anniversary of Sheila Madore being reported missing to police and the Special Investigation Section of the Integrated Criminal Investigation Division continues to investigate her homicide.

Sheila was reported missing to police on October 8th, 2020 and she was last seen on July 23rd, 2020 in the Gottingen Street area of Halifax. On March 12th, 2021, human remains were found in a wooded area near Elliot Street in Dartmouth. Investigators in the Integrated Criminal Investigation Division working with the Nova Scotia Medical Examiner Service identified the remains as those of Sheila.

Anyone with information about Sheila's homicide is asked to call police at 902-490-5020. It is never too late to come forward and the smallest piece of information may be just what is needed to progress the investigation.

Sheila's case is part of the Nova Scotia Department of Justice Rewards for Major Unsolved Crimes Program which offers cash rewards of up to $150,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person(s) responsible for specified major unsolved crimes. Callers must contact the Rewards Program at 1-888-710-9090, must provide their name and contact information, and may be called to testify in court. All calls will be recorded. The amount of the award will be based on the investigative value of the information provided.
